Statement of Facts

1. On Friday, May 22, 2026, at approximately 1555 hours, I, Detective Lieutenant John Santos, was contacted by Troop D Major Edward Blackwell who advised me of information he had received concerning a party making allegations of a possible sexual assault. He advised , had reported that his 17-year-old daughter had been touched inappropriately by the Mayor of Brockton, Moises Rodrigues, DOB: 6/24/1961 (hereinafter referred to as Rodrigues). Mr. reported that this incident had occurred at the Huntington Parade, which was held on May 22, 2026, in the City of Brockton from 1000-1100 hours. Major Blackwell advised that Mr. had reported this to the Brockton Police Department. Mr. was unhappy with the response by Brockton Police and had decided to also report the incident to the State Police Detective Unit (SPDU) Plymouth and the FBI.

2. I then spoke to Trooper Justin Paull who advised that at approximately 1400 hours he had received a call via the main telephone line at the SPDU Plymouth Office. Trooper Paull relayed to me that Mr. had advised him that he had reported it to Brockton Police and they had opened an investigation related to it. I then contacted Brockton Police Detective Lieutenant David Farrell who advised that Brockton School Police were actively investigating this incident. I advised Detective Lieutenant Farrell that SPDU - Plymouth were available to assist with this investigation in any way. He advised that he would relay this information to the Brockton School Police investigators and the Chief of Police.

3. At 1733 hours I contacted Mr. at . I advised Mr. what I had learned regarding Brockton School Police being assigned to investigate the incident. Mr. then relayed the following information to me regarding the incident: He described that the incident occurred during the parade that day. He described his daughter as a 17-year-old member of the Brockton High School Marching Band. He described that she is a straight A student with a 4.0 GPA. During the parade he explained that the Rodrigues approached her and wrapped his arms all the way around her waist and was face-to-face with her. His daughter described to him that she did not know who he was and this made her very uncomfortable. He described that the band teacher, other school officials, and band members witnessed this incident. He also advised that members of the mayor's staff were video recording while the parade was on-going.

4. At approximately 1920 hours, Detective Lieutenant Farrell contacted me and advised that Brockton Police Chief Brenda Perez had advised that she would like to request that another agency assume primary investigative duties for this investigation. He asked that I relay this request to the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office (PCDAO). I relayed this to the PCDAO and it was decided that SPDU Plymouth would assume primary investigative duties for this investigation. Trooper Justin Paull and I were assigned to conduct this investigation. Trooper Paull was put in contact with Brockton School Police Sergeant Michael Livingston. Sergeant Livingston relayed the preliminary investigative information that the Brockton School Police had gathered. He identified the victim as 17-year-old Brockton High School senior (hereinafter referred to as). He also identified the following subjects as possible witnesses to the incident: Andrew Fantucchio, ; Rebecca Desmond, ; Sharon Wolder, ; and James Labillois, .

Canvas

5. On Saturday, May 23, 2026, at approximately 1400 hours, Trooper Mitchell Lamoureux, Trooper John MacDermott, Trooper Jason Valderrama and I conducted a canvas in the area of the intersection of Warren Avenue and Market Street in the city of Brockton. Investigators attempted to locate any surveillance video in the area where the reported incident occurred in an effort to recover video of the incident. Investigators checked numerous businesses and residences in the area but were unable to recover any footage of the incident. While in the area of the Promise School at 1121 Warren Avenue investigators observed numerous surveillance video cameras mounted on the exterior of the building. Trooper Justin Paull contacted Brockton Public Schools and requested that they preserve any footage that this system had recovered during the parade.

Interview of

6. On Thursday, May 28, 2026, at approximately 1524 hours Trooper Justin Paull and I interviewed . She was accompanied by her father , and her mother . The interview was audio and video recorded on Trooper Paull's department issued body worn camera. The following is not intended to be a verbatim account of this interview. For a full account of the interview, please refer to the recorded interview that was uploaded to the State Police Evidence Library.

7. stated that she was part of the Brockton High School marching band that participated in the Huntington Parade. said that she was in the front line of the band. As she was finishing up the parade route, near where the Promise School is located, she turned the corner and she felt someone grab her. stated that the person grabbed her by her waist. stated that she didn't know what to do at the time and remembered looking to her right side and seeing the mayor (Rodrigues), pull her closer to him. She described that as this happened she was still playing her trombone. She mimicked the motion of her playing the instrument, looking at him from the corner of her eyes and leaning to her left, away from him. also recalled that Rodrigues' face was really close to hers. said that she didn't know how to react, so she just started to awkwardly smile and leaned to her left, away from him.

8. During their interaction stated that Rodrigues was humming the parade music. She added that Rodrigues was whispering into her ear saying, "play this again" and "do this again for me". said that she was waiting for him to let her go. Rodrigues was whispering those things into her ear as she attempted to push away and lean toward her side. added that as Rodrigues was whispering to her he was holding her by her shoulders. said that Rodrigues then let her go and went in front of her and grabbed a flag from a student (.), who was part of the color guard.

9. remembered that during the interaction with Rodrigues she saw her band director, Andrew Fantucchio, witness the interaction and look back at her, and she thought he was going to stop the interaction. assumed Andrew Fantucchio would intervene because it appeared as if Rodrigues was interrupting the parade and from point of view, she would not expect a stranger to hold someone like that. At the end of the parade, Andrew Fantucchio asked if she knew Rodrigues and she told him that she did not. Andrew Fantucchio responded with "that's all I really needed to hear" and got a female from either the school staff or the school district office to come speak to her. She did not recall this person's name but remembered that they had identification that said Brockton Public Schools. This person asked what happened and described to her that Rodrigues had touched her in a way that made her feel uncomfortable. Additionally, during the interaction with Rodrigues, remembered one of Rodrigues' mayoral staff members recording on their phone.

10 After speaking with one of the adults, then sought comfort with one of her friends . went on to say that was one of the only friends she felt comfortable talking to because of what had happened to in the past. explained that there was an incident in the past where someone came close to her without her consent. She explained to that the incident during the parade made her feel uncomfortable. She recalled crying and wanting her father. She described telling her friend that she did not want to go to school because she was afraid Rodrigues would be there. told her that they wouldn't bring Rodrigues to the school because it "wouldn't be right" for them to allow that.

11. said that after she returned to the high school, was in front of her while they were walking to the music classroom. informed her not to go that way because Rodrigues was there. stated she then panicked and went into the bathroom and hid in there. said that she thought the teachers would make her talk to Rodrigues, but she didn't want to, so she stayed hidden in the bathroom. said she had some of her friends grab her clothes so she could change out of her uniform and leave the fine arts building. She explained she didn't want to be in that building out of fear that Rodrigues could still be there.

12. Trooper Paull then asked to describe in further detail how Rodrigues touched her. She described that he touched her with his left hand and arm. It was around her waist and near her lower back, and she pointed out that it was near her left side. She described that he was nudging her a bit while he was dancing with the song. While this was occurring, his face was near her right ear and cheek. She described that as he began to pull away slightly and was telling her to "play it again", he moved his left hand to her right shoulder. She described that before he spoke he was humming along with the music and then he said to her, play it again for me or do that again for me. While saying these things she recalls that he was pointing at her instrument.

13. was asked if she had any other interactions in the past with Rodrigues. explained that she does not know him personally but described that she remembered at the MCAS Scholarship Award Event earlier in the year, where she had to shake hands with members of the school committee as well as Rodrigues. Interview of Rebecca Desmond (Director of Music for Brockton Public Schools)

16. On Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at approximately 1043 hours Trooper Justin Paull and Trooper Alfred Silveira, interviewed Rebecca Desmond). Rebecca Desmond was identified as a witness to the incident involving Rodrigues and . The interview was audio and video recorded on Trooper Paull's department issued body worn camera. The following is not intended to be a verbatim account of this interview. For a full account of the interview, please refer to the recorded interview that was uploaded to the State Police Evidence Library.

17. Rebecca Desmond stated that she was the Director of Music for kindergarten through 12th grade for the Brockton Public Schools. On Friday, May 22, 2026, Rebecca participated in the Huntington Parade. This was a parade that is held every year in Brockton. Rebecca said that the parade started at approximately 1030 hours. The parade involved elementary school students, middle school bands, high school band, elected officials, and members of the school committee. The parade was approximately 30 minutes and travelled roughly one square block. Rebecca's role during the parade was to facilitate the bands.

18. Rebecca Desmond stated that she witnessed the interaction between Rodrigues and . Rebecca was waiting for the band to come back to the Huntington School and noticed Rodrigues with his arm around . Based on the way Rodrigues was positioned next to Rebecca felt as though they might know each other. Rebecca stated that Rodrigues' left arm was draped around left shoulder but could not confirm where his left hand was placed. Rebecca stated that Rodrigues' hand might have been on shoulder, but she did not get a good look at it and that they were very close to each other.

19. During the interaction between Rodrigues and , Rebecca Desmond said that it was difficult to see any expression from because she was wearing a hat and playing the trombone as the interaction was going on. Rebecca then looked at the band director, Andrew Fantuccio, and asked if Rodrigues and may know each other based on how close they were. After talking to Andrew, Rebecca looked back and saw that Rodrigues had moved on from and was next to a color-guard student who was performing and had taken her flag. At that point the parade was coming to an end and Rebecca then focused on rounding up all the students to get back on the buses. Rebecca did not know exactly when Rodrigues put his arm around and didn't know how long he had his arm around her.

20. Rebecca Desmond described Rodrigues' behavior as erratic and that her initial reaction was that he might be drunk. However, later on in the interview, Rebecca stated that she had an interaction with Rodrigues after the parade, and he did not seem drunk. Rebecca stated that one of the Rodrigues mayoral assistants, a Cape Verdean male approximately 5'5" and in his mid-20s, later identified as Clayton Barros, might have video of the incident, as he was filming throughout the parade. Rebecca was also able to provide investigators with additional people who may have information (Andrew Fantucchio, Angelina Damiani, and Judy Noone).

21. Rebecca Desmond stated that after the parade had ended Rodrigues came back to Brockton High School. When Rebecca came back to the high school, she could see that Rodrigues and Andrew Fantucchio were having a conversation in the music office. Prior to this, Rebecca had already been made aware of the incident involving Rodrigues and by Andrew, who told her that was having a difficult time dealing with the interaction with Rodrigues. Rebecca advised Andrew to contact the Brockton Superintendent Priya Tahiliani and Deputy Superintendent Sharon Wolder, who were at the parade, and advise them of the situation. At that moment Rebecca did not know where was, but she thought knew that Rodrigues was at the high school. Later, Rebecca discovered from other students that had been hiding in the bathroom because she knew Rodrigues was at the school.

22. At some point Rebecca then entered the music room and joined the conversation with Rodrigues and Andrew. According to Rebecca, Rodrigues stated that in his culture (Cape Verdean) it was common for adults to put their arms around students. Rebecca told Rodrigues that with the children she works with and the population of the city it is best practice not to put your hands on a child because you don't know how they will react or what trauma they have been exposed to in the past. Rodrigues asked Rebecca if he could apologize to , to which she replied no and then he left. Rebecca added that she believed Rodrigues was made aware of the situation by Sharon Wolder.

23. In addition to Rebecca told investigators that Rodrigues had an interaction with another student, was majorette in the parade and swung a baton. During the parade Rodrigues grabbed the baton from her and was swinging it around. Rebecca said that Rodrigues did not have any physical contact with .

25. Andrew Fantucchio stated that he was a teacher at Brockton High School as well as the director of the Brockton High School Marching Band. On Friday, May 22, 2026, Andrew participated in the Huntington Parade. Andrew said that the parade started at approximately 1030 hours. The parade involved elementary school students, middle school bands, high school band, elected officials, and members of the school committee. The parade was approximately thirty minutes long and travelled roughly one square block.

26. About halfway through the parade, Andrew Fantucchio noticed Rodrigues "having fun" walking in and out of the ranks of the marching band. Andrew thought that this behavior was peculiar because typically no one moves in and out of the marching band as they are performing. At the end of the parade, Andrew Fantucchio noticed Rodrigues got very close to one of the instrumentalists . As was playing her instrument Andrew Fantucchio noticed Rodrigues walk up to her, and while standing on her right side, he put his left hand on left shoulder and his right hand on right shoulder, while simultaneously moving his head close to face. He was unaware if Rodrigues said anything to . Additionally, after seeing this interaction Andrew looked over at his co-worker Rebecca Desmond and they both had similar reactions, as to infer that the interaction did not seem appropriate.

27. After the parade had ended, Andrew Fantucchio checked in with and he said that she was visibly upset and distraught and asked if she knew Rodrigues, to which she replied, "no". There were friends surrounding trying to console her. He then contacted Deputy Superintendent Sharon Wolder and advised her of the situation. He also found out later that Rodrigues had grabbed a baton and flag from two other members of the marching band but did not witness it. Additionally, he was told by one of the members of the marching band, , that Rodrigues was bumping into her, but he did not witness that as well.

28. Prior to going back to the high school, Andrew Fantucchio stated that he went back to the parking lot and could see Sharon Wolder, Rodrigues, and one of Rodrigues' mayoral assistants talking and what appeared to be looking at a phone. He said that throughout the entire parade there was someone from the mayor's office filming the parade and that they could possibly be looking at video.

29. When Andrew Fantucchio returned to the high school Rodrigues was waiting for him outside of his office. Rodrigues stated that he would like to apologize to any of the students that he may have offended. He told Rodrigues that he didn't think that would be appropriate at that time. Rodrigues told him to let the students know that he wanted to apologize to them. Andrew Fantucchio then went on to tell Rodrigues that the students he interacted with did feel violated and that he felt it was his obligation to notify the appropriate personnel. At this point Andrew Fantucchio's department head, Rebecca Desmond, joined in on the conversation. Rodrigues ended up telling both of them that it was a cultural difference and didn't intend on making anyone feel uncomfortable.

30. Andrew Fantucchio stated that he ended up calling parents and advising them about the situation. After speaking to parents, Andrew allowed to talk with her parents, at which point she asked them to come pick her up from school. As of this interview, Andrew Fantucchio stated that had not contacted him to talk about the incident.

Interview of Sharon Wolder (Deputy Superintendent of Brockton Public Schools)

31. On Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at approximately 1327 hours, Trooper Justin Paull and Trooper Alfred Silveira, interviewed Sharon Wolder). For a full account of the interview, please refer to the recorded interview that was uploaded to the State Police Evidence Library.

32. Sharon Wolder stated she is the Deputy Superintendent of Teaching and Learning for Brockton Public Schools. She stated that as the parade came to an end Andrew Fantucchio had made her aware of a student that was hugged by Rodrigues and that felt that the touching was inappropriate and made her upset. Andrew brought over to her and she asked if she was okay. told her that she was upset that Rodrigues had hugged her. She asked if she knew the Rodrigues and stated she did not. She then advised that she would meet her back at the high school to check in on her to make sure she was all right. Additionally, Sharon Wolder stated that while on scene at the parade she approached Adjustment Counselor/Professional Development Director Keri Clark regarding this incident. She asked Keri Clark if she could check with to make sure she was doing okay. Sharon Wolder also made Jamie LaBillois aware of the situation. Jamie LaBillois is the Title 9 Officer for the district. Lastly, she also made the Superintendent of Brockton Public Schools Priya Tahiliani aware of the situation.

33. Sharon Wolder stated that another student was brought up to her and Priya Tahiliani and that student explained to them that Rodrigues had also interacted with her by taking a flag that she was waving during the parade. She stated that this particular student was more upset at the fact Rodrigues had taken her flag. That student advised that Rodrigues did not touch her at all.

34. After everyone had cleared the parking lot where the parade had ended Sharon Wolder approached Rodrigues and made him aware that students were crying because of his interactions with them. She told him that the students felt uncomfortable with him hugging them and taking the flags from them. Rodrigues then offered to go to the high school and apologize to them, but she told him that she did not think that would be a good idea at that time. She also told Rodrigues that the students he interacted with did not want anything posted on social media.

35. Sharon Wolder added that she did not witness the interaction between Rodrigues and or any of the other students. She said that Rodrigues did have an assistant, Clayton, who was able to show her a video of Rodrigues swinging the flag. She added that she could see there were multiple videos on his phone but only watched the one with Rodrigues playing with the flag.

36. Sharon Wolder said that after wrapping up at the parking lot she was going to attempt to go back to the school and check on . However, she was contacted by one of the assistant principals who informed her that had been dismissed. She later found out that Rodrigues had gone back to the school to apologize even though she told him not to. She asked the assistant principal to reach out to the family to make sure was doing fine. She was advised that the family had been contacted by the school to see how was doing, but that father could not talk much because he was already at the Brockton Police Department to press charges.

Interview of James LaBillois (Deputy Superintendent of Brockton Public Schools)

37. On Tuesday, May 26, 2026, at approximately 1340 hours, Trooper Justin Paull and Trooper Alfred Silveira interviewed James LaBillois . James LaBillois was identified as a witness to the incident involving Rodrigues and . The interview was audio and video recorded on Trooper Paull's department issued body worn camera. For a full account of the interview, please refer to the recorded interview that was uploaded to the State Police Evidence Library.

38. James LaBillois stated he is the Assistant Superintendent of Unified Student Services and is also the Title IX Coordinator & Civil Rights Officer for Brockton Public Schools. He stated that he was at the parade and walked with one of the students with "high needs". At the conclusion of the parade the Superintendent of the Brockton Schools Priya Tahiliana advised him that Sharon Wolder needed to update him on an issue involving Rodrigues. Sharon then went on to tell him that Rodrigues was acting inappropriately and was making some of the female student feel uncomfortable. Because of James LaBillois' role as Title IX coordinator, he said Sharon thought that he should be aware of the situation. He then asked the band director, Rebecca Desmond, who the student was that was affected. He learned that the name of the student was . He also added that Rebecca told him that she saw everything and that she thought it was really inappropriate.

39. James LaBillois stated he went back to his office and looked up information to try and find out what house she assigned to at Brockton High School. After finding out where in the high school was assigned, he reached out to the assistant principal that oversaw that house, Bernadette Sullivan. He advised her what had occurred and asked her to check in with to make sure she was okay and ensure that she be given any counselling or support that she needed. He stated that he got a call about an hour later saying that had already been dismissed from the high school. Additionally, he had been made aware that father, , was at the Brockton Police Department to file charges against Rodrigues.

40. James LaBillois stated that on May 26, 2026, at approximately 1130 hours he sat down with parents for an intake interview under Title IX. He stated that parents advised that was unable to attend the meeting because she was still embarrassed and upset about the situation and couldn't get out of bed. He stated that he spoke with parents who told him that they contacted Brockton Police but felt that they would not investigate faithfully because the mayor, Rodrigues, was their boss. He said that is why ended up contacting the FBI and SPDU Plymouth to see that it was investigated properly.

41. James LaBillois said that he asked to describe what had happened. James stated that the reason he wanted to know exactly what happened was because he had gotten hearsay (secondhand) reports. As the Title IX officer it was his responsibility to make sure the districts policies are implemented, independent of who the investigation is about, to protect civil rights. He said that several staff members had sent emails to him about what they observed. He was able to forward me a copy of those emails which will be uploaded to the ACISS case file.

42. From the emails that James LaBillois received from staff members, it appeared as if Rodrigues had a pattern of odd behavior throughout the parade culminating with the incident with . James LaBillois explained that parents had advised that told them that Rodrigues had come up behind her as she was marching, had his body extremely close to her, and had his head between her head and her shoulder. They believed that Rodrigues had whispered something into ear. parents claimed that it made very uncomfortable and that she attempted to pull away but Rodrigues pulled her back in. Additionally, parents told James LaBillois that someone made a reference to the fact that might know Rodrigues but that was not true.

43. At the conclusion of James LaBillois' interview with parents he advised them that they have a right to a formal investigation under Title IX and that they would come up with a plan to make sure felt comfortable when she came back to school. He explained to parents that he would seek an outside investigator (Attorney Jeff Sankey), that was separate from any committee associated to the Brockton Public Schools, who would investigate any policies that were violated. He assured them that this investigation was different from any criminal investigation that the Brockton Police or State Police were conducting. parents decided that they did want to proceed with a formal investigation and that they were very frustrated and angry with what had happened to their daughter. James LaBillois stated that a formal letter will be sent out to the proper parties highlighting the incident that took place and that an investigation was launched. Lastly, he added that in the letter it will state that the mayor (Rodrigues) may not attend any events involving the band or seniors, including graduation.

Interview of Moises Rodrigues (Mayor)

68. On Wednesday, June 17, 2026, at approximately 1207 hours, Trooper Justion Paull and I, interviewed the Mayor of Brockton, Moises Rodrigues (DOB: 06/24/1961; Address: 234 Summer St, Brockton; Phone: 508-386-5816). The interview was related to a complaint that Rodrigues had inappropriately touched and made her feel uncomfortable during the Huntington Parade. This parade occurred on Friday, May 22, 2026, from 1000-1100 hours, in the city of Brockton. The interview was audio and video recorded on Trooper Paull's department issued body worn camera. The following is not intended to be a verbatim account of this interview. For a full account of the interview, please refer to the recorded interview that has been uploaded to the State Police Evidence Library.

69. Prior to Rodrigues being interviewed Trooper Paull read him a Miranda Rights and Waiver form which he signed, agreeing to speak with investigators. Rodrigues stated that he attended the Huntington Parade on May 22, 2026, and got to the event just before the start of it at 1000 hours. Rodrigues stated that he was a part of the parade and started out walking with all of the other politicians. During the parade Rodrigues said that he was not centralized to one area, rather that he was all over the place talking to people and taking pictures. Rodrigues was not sure how many people he interacted with on that day, however there were interactions with people all throughout the parade. Rodrigues spoke with people associated with the parade as well as spectators at the parade. Most of the interactions that took place consisted of giving people a high five, low five, and people putting their arms around him, while taking a picture.

70. Rodrigues was asked if he remembered an interaction with one of the band members that happened towards the end of the parade, which he said he did not. Rodrigues stated that he had seen video of the interaction but did not recall when it took place, because he had so many interactions that day. Rodrigues stated that the video he observed was from one of his staff members Clayton Barros (Director of Youth Services and Special Projects) who was taking video of the parade for social media purposes. Rodrigues added that he did remember playing with one of the majorette's flags and a band member's baton during the parade. The disk of videos and photos provided by Clayton Barros contains a short video of this interaction. This video is uploaded to the ACISS case file and labeled as Video 3.

71. Rodrigues stated that the song the band was playing was called "Anchors Away", a Navy military song. As a Navy veteran himself, he acted as if he was being the conductor of the song as he was walking next to . At the conclusion of the parade, Rodrigues was approached by the deputy superintendent and told him that a teacher came up to her and told her that a student in the band felt uncomfortable with him putting his arm around her. Rodrigues did not know which student they were referencing and thought it might have been the majorette, until he was told it was someone in the brass band. Rodrigues stated that he was shocked by the allegation because he didn't remember putting his arms around anyone but did say it could have been possible knowing that he was walking around interacting with so many people. Rodrigues said that none of the interactions he had that day stood out to him, and he did not feel as though any of them would have caused an issue.

72. Rodrigues was asked if he remembered saying anything to as he was interacting with her and he said that he may have said "play it again", referencing to playing the Navy "Anchors Away" song again. Rodrigues stated that he didn't remember saying it but had heard it on the video he watched. Rodrigues said that the reason why he said "play it again" was because there were other elected officials at the parade who were Army veterans and as a rival of Navy Rodrigues wanted to have them hear the Navy song again.

73. After hearing the accusation from the deputy superintendent, Rodrigues immediately asked the deputy superintendent to apologize on his behalf and explain that he meant no harm to that individual. Rodrigues stated that he then drove back to the high school to try and speak to the band teachers and explain to them that he did not mean any harm and did not intend to make the individual feel uncomfortable. Once at the high school, Rodrigues spoke with the two band teachers (Andrew Fantucchio and Rebecca Desmond) and addressed the situation. He described to them that he didn't mean to cause an issue and wanted to make sure the student was okay. Rodrigues said after he spoke with the teachers, he then left the high school.

74. Rodrigues was made aware by the Brockton Police Department that the parents of had filed a complaint against him. Rodrigues said that he had not been contacted by parents and he did not reach out to them. Rodrigues stated that he did receive a letter from the school stating that they were conducting an internal investigation and that he was to have no contact with the complainant during school activities. Rodrigues said that he had a conversation with members of the school department, and they told him that it was ultimately his decision whether or not he would attend the Brockton High School Graduation. He described that it was just a suggestion made to him advising him that the parents of did not want him to go to the graduation. Rodrigues felt that as the mayor of the city, he owed it to the entire graduating class to be present, and to not let one person, who did not want him to be there, dictate what he should do. Additionally, Rodrigues described that he had a conversation with the school superintendent the night before the graduation and she told him that if she was him, she would attend the graduation. This interview concluded at 1242 hours.

Recovery and Analysis of Video recovered from Promise School

75. On Friday, May 29, 2026, at approximately 1400 hours, Trooper Justin Paull, retrieved video footage from cameras attached to the exterior of the Promise School (1121 Warren Ave, Brockton) related to the incident between Rodrigues, and The video footage that Trooper Paull retrieved showed the entirety of the Huntington Parade that occurred on Friday, May 22, 2026, from 1000-1100 hours. Conclusion

80. Based upon the facts of this investigation to include the above-described interviews and the above-described photo and video evidence, I believe that Rodrigues did intentionally touch at approximately 1052 hours during the Huntington Parade.

81. Additionally, I believe this touching was not consensual. Within interview she describes not knowing what to do when Rodrigues touched her, but she described leaning away in an attempt to distance herself from him. In that moment I believe that did not react more forcefully because she was conflicted by her obligation to continue her role in the band's performance and to not interrupt the other band members performance. Additionally, band members are not accustomed to being approached, touched, or interacted with while performing. immediate emotional reaction to this incident when the parade ended and the fact that she reported this to Brockton Public Schools administration clearly indicates that this was not consensual.

82. Rodrigues did not have any reason to physically interact with any of the students in the marching band. Rodrigues role in the parade was to walk with the politicians. He advised that throughout the parade he interacted with spectators and other people associated with the parade. He described that throughout the parade he was not centralized in one area but stopped frequently to talk and take photos with numerous people. Review of photo and video evidence does not indicate that any of the members of the band or color guard solicited an interaction with Rodrigues. Additionally, witnesses indicated that it was unusual for anyone to interact with the band when they were performing. Based upon this information I believe that Rodrigues did not have any reasonable right or excuse to touch .

83. As a result of this investigation, I believe there is probable cause to charge Moises Rodrigues with one count of Assault and Battery 265/13A
